

Baker Puppet Show Slated For April 2

Members of the Torrance Co-operative Nursery School are selling tickets for the Bob Baker Puppet Show which will be held at the Torrance High School Cafeteria on Saturday, April 9, at 2 p.m. Proceeds from the show will benefit the school in helping to replace, purchase and maintain the equipment.

Many residents of the area are familiar with the Bob Baker productions. The show is performed in the "round" making it possible for the puppets to come to life in front of the audience instead of being hidden by stages. Alton Wood and Bob Baker create their shows to enchant audiences young and old.

The Torrance Coop Nursery is part of the Adult Education Department of the Torrance Unified School District and is directed by Mrs. Milton Barter. Twenty-five families participate in the parent education program with the nursery school operating four mornings a week for children between three and five years old. Anyone wishing more information may call Mrs. Dewey French or Mrs. Tom Miller.

New Charm Class Set At YWCA

Due to popular demand, registration is now being held for another modeling class which begins Saturday, March 26, at the Torrance YWCA. Mrs. Dorothy Wilkes, a professional model, will instruct the class on the proper way to sit and walk, the art of conversation, acquiring a good posture, care of the skin and hair, gaining an ideal figure through diet and exercise and selecting a good wardrobe. This will be a five week course in charm and modeling for teenage girls.

The class will begin at 2:30 p.m. in the YWCA. Mrs. Shirley Youngken will assist Mrs. Dorothy Wilkes with class instruction and demonstration. Following this five week course, the girls will be featured in a fashion show for parents and friends.

YW To Hear Rev. Watson

"Prayer, the Mightiest Force in the World," will be the topic of Rev. (Tlick) Watson, when he speaks at the Harbor Area YWCA headquarters building, 437 West Ninth Street, San Pedro, on Monday, March 28 at 1 p.m.

Rev. Watson, who is an international prayer leader, has worked with Dr. Glenn Clark in establishing prayer groups in hospitals, prisons, and in the churches of many demonstrations.

"The YWCA is a lay Christian movement," Mrs. William Leaver, religious emphasis chairman, stated. "It is not a church nor is it organizationally related to any of the churches. It cannot provide a total religious experience for its members and encourages individuals to be a part of the church of their choice. Through the activities of the Area Religious Emphasis Committee we try to provide opportunities for the work of lay Christians with different creeds to work together. We feel there is great strength in Christians working together," she concluded.

Other members of the sponsoring committee are: Mmes. Fritz Klassen, Robert Sharp, J. B. Mosley, Floyd Latham and E. N. Beckett.

Bridge Club

With just a bit of green in decoration in honor of St. Patrick, Mrs. Ray Flagg, 1620 Hickory, was hostess to her bridge club last week. Those enjoying the evening were: Mmes. Donald Anderson, Jack Brislin, Marvin McCabe, Al Shyder, Wesley Megow, Joe Cannon, Fred Hilton, and the hostess, Mrs. Donald Anderson won the prize for high score, with Mrs. McCabe and Mrs. Megow being the recipients of the other two.

Whitcotton-Musick Vows Recited in Baptist Rites

Crenshaw Baptist Church was the setting on Saturday March 5 for the marriage of Miss Wanita Marie Whitcotton, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. J. F. Whitcotton, 18615 Crenshaw Blvd. to Jerry Dee Musick. The bridegroom is the son of Mr. and Mrs. Jess Musick of Sentinel, Okla.

The Rev. Henry Samples, formerly of Oklahoma City, officiated at the double ring ceremony.

The bride, who came to the altar on the arm of her father, was gowned in rosepoint lace over candlelight satin fashioned on princess lines with a high scalloped neckline embroidered with seed pearls. The bouffant gown fell into a chapel train. A cap of rosepoint lace and seed pearls secured the fingertip illusion veil and the bride carried a bouquet of white orchids and stephanotis.

Miss Donna Stoeckle of Torrance, who served as maid of honor, wore a full length gown of peacock blue net and lace. She carried a bouquet of pink camellias.

Jerry Bozzell of Inglewood, performed the duties of best man.

Freddie Lee Whitcotton, brother of the bride, served as usher. The nuptial music was provided by Mrs. Evelyn Welty at the organ. A reception followed at the church and Miss Genell Musick, niece of the bridegroom, registered the guests.

The newlyweds spent a honeymoon in Las Vegas and are establishing a Torrance home.

The bride was graduated from North High school and is employed by the Bank of America in Los Angeles.

Her husband was graduated from the Stafford, Okla., high school and attended Southwestern State College in Oklahoma. He is now a student at El Camino college here.

Mrs. Jess Musick came from Oklahoma to attend her son's wedding. Among the other guests were the bride's paternal grandmother, Mrs. Bertha Franks of Walteria and two great aunts, Mrs. Irvin McClellan of Santa Ana and Mrs. Etta Lupper of Huntington Beach.

Aquarium Unit Meets Tonight

March meeting of the Harbor Aquarium Society will be held this evening at 7:30 p.m. in the Recreation Hall at Mc-Masters Park, 174th and Yukon in Torrance. The meeting will be called to order by President Vic Boswell.

The feature of the evening will be a panel discussion by four members of the Harbor Aquarium Society, each a hobbyist and all four of them being more than successful in their breeding and raising of tropical fish, and are well qualified to answer any questions submitted by members.

Panel members are: Al Doyle of Inglewood, Alvin McEwen of Harbor City, Russell Gammel of Redondo Beach and Jerry Reynolds of Redondo.

At this meeting, the votes for new officers will be counted and the results announced. A vote will be taken on the change in dues rate and the adoption of a new short form constitution. The yearly reports will be read and approved.

The show fish of the Month will be the Scavengers, which includes all the catfish, snails and freshwater clams. The door prize will be a five gallon aquarium. Refreshments will be served after the meeting. All tropical fish fanciers are welcome.

Snow Frolic

Frolicking in the snow and enjoying the tobogganing at Snow Valley last Saturday were Mr. and Mrs. Ken Cunningham and children, Dan and Jorie, 1923 Reynosa Dr. They had as their guest Miss Nancy Fields of Redlands.
